4. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Talked with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, explaining to him some of the specific procedures that would be involved for the forthcoming CIA briefings of the Defense Subcommittee. This involves special clearances and special handling by the reporters. Mr. Michaels foresaw no difficulty in working this out to the Agency's satisfaction.
5. (Unclassified - JSW) Talked with Congressman Ogden Reid this morning suggesting a number of amendments to the Immigration law which he readily agreed he would put in his bill which he plans to introduce in the very near future.
6. (Unclassified - JSW) Delivered to Representative Alexander Pirnie, per his request, a plaque of the Agency seal for which he was most appreciative.
7. (Unclassified - JSW) Made arrangements with Carl Marcy, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to meet with various Agency officials for luncheon on 1 February to discuss his travels of last year.
8. (Unclassified - JSW) Talked with Boyd Crawford, House Foreign Affairs Committee, who indicated there were no current plans to request the Director to appear before the House Foreign Affairs Committee. He indicated he would let me know if anything developed on this.
9. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In Senator Brewster's absence, delivered to Mr. John Sullivan, Administrative Assistant to the Senator, an Agency plaque which had been requested by the Senator. Mr. Sullivan expressed the Senator's regret of not being there on receipt of the plaque and indicated that it would be hung in the office during the afternoon.
